

Closing Date:

P.O. Box 400 → Fox Lake Reserve → Chapleau, Ontario → POM 1K0

Tel: (705) 864-0784 ◆ Fax (705)864-1760

reception@chapleaucree.ca

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Costion:   Chapleau Cree First Nation (CCFN) is a member of the Mushkegnowsk Council and is situated on the Fox Lake Reserve, located just outside the community of Chapleau. The community is approximately four hours north of Sault Ste. Marie and two hours southwest of Timmins.    Description:   The Community Economic Development Officer shall be responsible for planning, managing and not portation of Chapleau Cree First Nations Economic Development programs and initiatives for business retention, promotion, marketing, and expansion. Responsibilities shall include the coordination of assigned activities with orther departments and outside agencies. maintaining regular contact with the community in situations that require tact and judgment, representing the CCFN in negotiations and mediations and providing general assistance and support to the Band Administrator.	Position:	Community Economic Development Officer activities and operations of Chapleau Cree First Nation's Economic Development programs and initiatives for business retention, promotion, marketing, and deyapansion. Responsibilities shall include the coordination of assigned activities with other departments and outside agencies, maintaining regular contact with the community in situations that require tact and judgment, representing the CCFN in negotiations and mediations and providing general assistance and support to the Band Administrator.  Minimum Education and Experience Entrance Qualifications:  Preferred Qualifications:  Preferred Qualifications:  Sachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in planning, business administration, community management, or a related field.  One-year responsible experience in economic development, community development or a closely related field, focusing on assisting businesses.  Plan and implement the community economic development program seek out programs that will enhance and benefit members of the CCFN. Develop and assist in the implementation of CCFN goals objectives and policies/ procedures related to economic activities-programs.  Develop and manage a marketing and strategic plan for a long-range community economic development program prepare periodic reports indicating related activities and progress towards goals and objectives.  Advise the Band Administrator on issues related to the improvement and enhancement of existing and new community programs.  Identify and coordinate relations with band and community members.  Identify and coordinate relations with band and community members.  Perepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities.  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities.  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities.  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities.  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and ac	Location:	located just outside the community of Chapleau. The community is approximately four hours north of Sault Ste. Marie and
Experience Entrance Qualifications  Preferred Qualifications:  Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in planning, business administration, community management, or a related field. One-year responsible experience in economic development, community development or a closely related field, focusing on assisting businesses.  Plan and implement the community economic development program seek out programs that will enhance and benefit members of the CCFN. Develop and assist in the implementation of CCFN goals-objectives and policies/ procedures related to economic activities-programs  Pevelop and manage are marketing and strategic plan for a long-range community economic development program prepare periodic reports indicating related activities and progress towards goals and objectives Advise the Band Administrator on issues related to the improvement and enhancement of existing and new community and coordinate relations with band and community members Develop marketing and information materials appropriate for meetings, existing and prospective businesses and the general public Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities Participate in the administration of the economic development programs and activities Participate in the administration of the economic development programs and activities interact with area chamber of commerce's and similar groups to promote business Conduct and manage special projects Work with outside agencies and professional consultants as necessary Act as an advisor to city municipal boards and other organizations Working with the Communications Policy, provide source for media information promoting a positive image of the CCFN Review and provide input on current community-economic development projects and proposed ordinances to the Band Administrator Review policies and procedures of various departments and recommend to the Band Administrator improvements which may increase economic development opportunities Travel Required Ability	Description:	activities and operations of Chapleau Cree First Nation's Economic Development programs and initiatives for business retention, promotion, marketing, and expansion. Responsibilities shall include the coordination of assigned activities with other departments and outside agencies, maintaining regular contact with the community in situations that require tact and judgment, representing the CCFN in negotiations and mediations and providing general assistance and support to the management, or a related field.  One-year responsible experience in economic development, community development or a closely related field, focusing on assisting businesses.  Plan and implement the community economic development program seek out programs that will enhance and benefit members of the CCFN. Develop and assist in the implementation of CCFN goals-objectives and policies/ procedures related to economic activities-programs  Develop and manage a marketing and strategic plan for a long-range community economic development program prepare periodic reports indicating related activities and progress towards goals and objectives  Advise the Band Administrator on issues related to the improvement and enhancement of existing and new community programs  Identify and recruit office, retailers, restaurants, and sales tax generating businesses Identify and coordinate relations with band and community members  Develop marketing and information materials appropriate for meetings, existing and prospective businesses and the general public  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities  Participate in the administration of the economic development program budget  Develop budgetary plans and controls in order to facilitate economic development programs and activities Interact with area chamber of commercies and similar groups to promote business  Conduct and manage special projects  Work with outside agencies and professional consultants as necessary Act as an advisor to city municipal boards and other organizations Working with the Communications Policy, provide source for media information promoting a positive image of the CCFN  Review and provide input on current community-economic development projects and proposed ordinances to the Band Administrator improvements which may increase economic development opportunities  Travel Required  Ability to attend and conduct presentations  Overtime as required	Experience Entrance	✓ Must have a valid, unencumbered Class G driver's license members of the CCFN. Develop and assist in the implementation of CCFN goals-objectives and policies/ procedures related to economic activities-programs  Develop and manage a marketing and strategic plan for a long-range community economic development program prepare periodic reports indicating related activities and progress towards goals and objectives  Advise the Band Administrator on issues related to the improvement and enhancement of existing and new community programs  Identify and recruit office, retailers, restaurants, and sales tax generating businesses  Identify and coordinate relations with band and community members  Develop marketing and information materials appropriate for meetings, existing and prospective businesses and the general public  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities  Participate in the administration of the economic development program budget  Develop budgetary plans and controls in order to facilitate economic development programs and activities  Interact with area chamber of commerce's and similar groups to promote business  Conduct and manage special projects  Work with outside agencies and professional consultants as necessary Act as an advisor to city municipal boards and other organizations Working with the Communications Policy, provide source for media information promoting a positive image of the CCFN  Review and provide input on current community-economic development projects and proposed ordinances to the Band Administrator  Review policies and procedures of various departments and recommend to the Band Administrator improvements which may increase economic development opportunities  Travel Required  Ability to attend and conduct presentations  Overtime as required	Preferred Qualifications:	management, or a related field.  ✓ One-year responsible experience in economic development, community development or a closely related field,
Wage: Salary to commensurate with experience.	Duties/Responsibilities:	members of the CCFN. Develop and assist in the implementation of CCFN goals-objectives and policies/ procedures related to economic activities-programs  Develop and manage a marketing and strategic plan for a long-range community economic development program prepare periodic reports indicating related activities and progress towards goals and objectives  Advise the Band Administrator on issues related to the improvement and enhancement of existing and new community programs  Identify and recruit office, retailers, restaurants, and sales tax generating businesses  Identify and coordinate relations with band and community members  Develop marketing and information materials appropriate for meetings, existing and prospective businesses and the general public  Prepare and present analytical and statistical reports on operations and activities  Participate in the administration of the economic development program budget  Develop budgetary plans and controls in order to facilitate economic development programs and activities  Interact with area chamber of commerce's and similar groups to promote business  Conduct and manage special projects  Work with outside agencies and professional consultants as necessary Act as an advisor to city municipal boards and other organizations Working with the Communications Policy, provide source for media information promoting a positive image of the CCFN  Review and provide input on current community-economic development projects and proposed ordinances to the Band Administrator  Review policies and procedures of various departments and recommend to the Band Administrator improvements which may increase economic development opportunities  Travel Required  Ability to attend and conduct presentations
	Wage:	Salary to commensurate with experience.

Individuals are invited to submit their application, résumé and three references to the following:

Open Until Filled

Edith Larocque, Band Administrator Chapleau Cree First Nation P.O. Box 400 Chapleau, ON POM 1K0 bandadmin@chapleaucree.ca

We thank all applicants, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted. First Nation individuals and CCFN band members are encouraged to apply!