The NIB Trust Fund is accepting applications from First Nation and Métis individuals to support education programs aimed at healing, reconciliation and knowledge building.

All First Nations and Métis citizens over the age of 18 and with a valid social insurance number are eligible for funding through a competitive application process. Priority will be given to former students of residential schools and their family members.

Application Process:

- Scholarship for post-secondary education
Only online applications will be accepted
- Bursary for training/certification
Only online applications will be accepted
- Award for cultural/traditional/language knowledge building
We will accept online applications, or you can download the application form and send by email or mail.

Please note: We will not accept handwritten applications or applications sent by fax.

The NIB Trust Fund allocates funds in accordance with the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement of 2007 – the largest settlement agreement in Canadian history which provided compensation to survivors for their experiences at residential school. The NIB Trust Fund offers a new opportunity separate from Indian residential school’s compensation packages.
