Guidelines for Visitors on Reserve

Chapleau Cree First Nation Chief & Council has approved visitors ON Reserve with the following guidelines that must be adhered to.

- Maximum of Five (10) people/visitors per household including residents of your household. i.e. You, your spouse, your one (1) child means you can have up to two (7) visitors as per the guidelines below
- All visitors will be required to check in at Gate/Entry Point Area (set up to protect our community from COVID-19 & funnel traffic)
- All visitors are required to STOP at the Gate/Entry Point Area and will be asked a list of mandatory questions from the gate attendants
- Should visitors not be willing to answer the required questions or answer yes to any of the precautionary questions, visitor access will be denied.

PLEASE KEEP OUR COMMUNITY SAFE!
