Gifts from the Creator, Hope for the Future.

According to many Aboriginal belief systems, a child is a gift from the Creator. Today, Aboriginal people also believe that if children grow up with a sense of belonging, they can keep their cultures vital and restore their communities.

A sense of identity equals a sense of belonging

We are constantly developing our identity, from birth to the end of our lives. We build it based on our relationships to relatives, friends, community, geography, language and other social factors.

Identity plays a key role in healthy child/youth development. When a child feels a sense of belonging to family, community and peers he or she is better able to deal with adversity.

Special Thanks

We would like to thank all our supporters, especially the Elders, Youth, Knowledge Keepers and Helpers including, but not limited to the following:
