Meet Our NEW Staff

Nathalie Barsalou has joined the Chapleau Cree First Nation team as the Community Event Coordinator!

I decided to work here because I have always had an interest in working for my community. After a 24 year career in public health it was time for a change. I am excited for this new adventure and look forward to working with Chapleau Cree band members and community members.

My educational background is in public and environmental health and my hobbies include crafting, gardening and travelling. I look forward to bringing past work experience and knowledge and look forward to learning and growing with my new position.

My door is always open to anyone, feel free to pop in to and say Hi!
